Annie Palmer, Artist/Teacher

Over the last 35 years I have developed numerous and unusual visual techniques using acrylics, watercolours and mixed mediums, pastels and collages. I paint abstract and contemporary styles with a diverse variation of colours. I love looking at the landscape, creating an abstract contemporary vision of that scene using a palette knife to create textures and utilising collages and acrylic inks to obtain a bright colourful piece. My passion is painting trees, rocks and the Australian bush incorporating in my art works. A new direction I'm taking is contemporary artworks incorporating buildings that I am exploring. I love teaching my techniques so that everyone enjoys the painting world.

Announcements from July's Committee Meeting held 04.07.2022

- ALM has been granted LMCC funding for our 2023 exhibition.
- We now have a Friends' list of people who are interested in our exhibitions but are not members.
- A workshop with artist Kasey Sealey has been booked for the weekend 26 and 27 November - details to follow.
- Sadly, "All About Framing" at Wyee, has closed its doors.
- After the Thursday demonstration has finished, the demonstrator will critique any paintings that members have brought in. While the critique is being done, members need to remain seated, and lights will remain off so all can hear and see the painting critique. The critique is done so that all members can benefit, not just the artist. We can all learn something from critiques.
- Linda Ruffle will be looking after the kitchen.

ATTENTION - mobile phones

Please be considerate and either turn off your phones or put them onto silent mode during the meeting and demonstration unless you have an important reason not to. Also remember to bring lunch if you are attending the workshop.

All members are encouraged to bring their artwork for the Demonstrator to give a positive and helpful critique of your work. Other members love to see the work of others. Whether you are needing some assistance or just simply proud of what you have achieved.
