September 2022's Demonstrator: Denise Painter

MARLENE PALAGYI, Artist/Teacher

Marlene's art has evolved over the years from acrylics and pastels to the soft translucency of watercolour, which has now become her passion to reflect the light, colour and textures of nature.

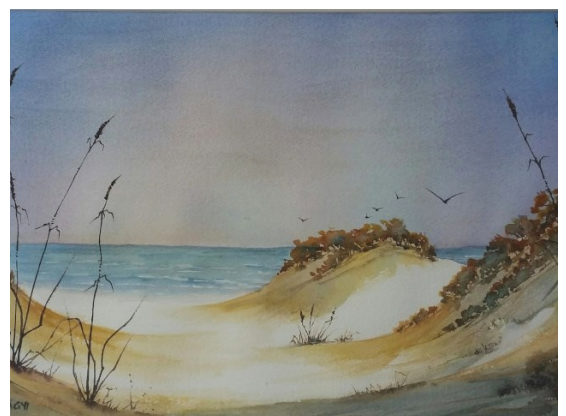

She has won several awards and prizes on the Central Coast, in the Hunter Valley and Sydney.

She is an active member of the Central Coast Watercolour Society, the Central Coast Art Society and the Toukley and District Art Society and exhibits her watercolours at local galleries, cafes and exhibitions.

Marlene now teaches beginners' classes and workshops for local art groups.

List of Materials for your Workshop

Marlene will be demonstrating the importance of leaving whites in your watercolour paintings for that extra life and contrast. Negative painting is one way of achieving this. Your purest whites and your darkest darks are what give your artwork that extra punch. In the workshop you will paint an image of Sand Dunes incorporating whites and darks.

Paper: Preferably 300gsm rough

Brushes: Large, medium and small mop brushes and a rigger brush

Paint: Raw sienna, cadmium yellow, alizarin crimson, burnt sienna, cobalt blue and ultramarine blue

Just bring what you have and we'll work with it.

- Central Coast Watercolour Society will be participating in a drive to send art books and equipment to Lismore to help Lismore Art Society replace a little of what has been lost in the floods.
- Morisset Uniting Church is organising an over 50's expo to introduce newcomers to what is available in the area. ALM will be participating on Friday, 7 October and it is hoped some members will help man the table on that day. Contact Julia or Marina.
- We are planning our Xmas lunch for the first Thursday in December. It will be fun fabric painting workshop, so get out a shirt, a t-shirt, an apron or tea towel for a Xmas themed painting to take home. And a shared lunch to follow!
- Don't forget the Kasey Sealey workshop in November. A very well known and admired artist for us to learn from at a very reasonable price. One or two day workshop - watercolour on Saturday and oil/acrylic on Sunday.
